

A rare George III Boudoir Label made in London in 1813 by Josiah Snatt.

Sold

Description

The Label is modelled in an unusual square form, with a double thread border. This piece is engraved with the very rare title of Lavender Water. The label is in excellent condition and very well marked on the reverse. Length: 0.95 inches, 2.38 cm. Width: 1.05 inches, 2.63 cm.