

A rare George III Wine Label made in Dublin in 1812 by James England and retailed by Law.

Sold

REF: 267664

Description

The Wine Label is of an unusual design with a domed top, raised eyelets and cut corners. This example is engraved with the very rare title of RED WINE, the first time we have offered one for sale. The label is in excellent condition and is very well marked.

Length: 2 inches, 5cm.